MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF NYPD'S DEVIATION FROM THE DISCIPLINARY SYSTEM PENALTY GUIDELINES

Re: Disciplinary Case No. 2022-25281 / PODS Case No. C-031943 regarding Detective Christina Moncion

Date: December 15, 2025

This disciplinary matter was investigated by the Civilian Complaint Review Board ("CCRB") which involved allegations that Detective Moncion stopped, frisked, and searched an individual, interfered with the individual's use of a recording device, and failed to provide the individual with a business card. CCRB has determined that a downward deviation from the Disciplinary System Penalty Guidelines is warranted.

I concur with the downward deviation for the reasons articulated by CCRB in the attached correspondence.

Therefore, the Charges and Specifications in this matter will be dismissed and Detective Moncion will receive Training, as negotiated by CCRB.

Re: CCRB v. DET. Christina Moncion (CCRB Case no. 202002605, DADs no. 2022-25281, Tax no. 954455)

Commissioner Tisch:

A negotiated settlement of dismissal of the charge along with Department Imposed Training was agreed upon and signed by all the parties on February 21, 2025. Assistant Deputy Commissioner-Trials, Vanessa Facio-Lince endorsed the negotiated settlement on March 24, 2025. This is a downward deviation from the NYPD's Disciplinary Matrix. CCRB offered this disposition for the following reasons:

1. Detective Moncion agreed to take responsibility for her misconduct.
2. While serving with the Patrol Borough Bronx Public Safety Team, Detective Moncion received recognition for Excellent Police Duty forty-four times, Meritorious Police Duty thirteen times, and has two Commendations.
3. Detective Moncion has also been a member of service for eleven years with no CCRB substantiated allegations.
4. The duration of these actions, which lasted no more than several minutes, is also a factor CCRB considered in recommending NYPD training.

Respectfully submitted,
